R. questa lettera è forse la più difficile per la pronunzia, eserre, mentre in inglese suona ar. Perciò per gli Italiani il distinguibile; la parola barber, barbiere, per esempio essendo da loro pronunziata come se fosse baber. Un buon maestro è essenzialmente necessario per facilitare l'orecchio dello stu-dente a questo suono.

W.

W, questa lettera può considerarsi come consonante al principio di parola, e come vocale al mezzo od alla fine. — Come consonante, quando vien seguita da un a, un e, od un i, suona come w italiano. West, il ponente; wind, il vento; weed, bacchetta; ma seguita da un o, ha un suono somigliante all'ow francese: woman, donna. — Come vocale ha per la più parte il suono di iu italiano: few, pochi, new, nuovo. Altre volte prende il suono di u, brewer, birraio. — W, dopo un o, od al mezzo, od alla fine di parola, è qualche volta muta: follow, seguire; mellow, maturo; altre volte prende, unita con l'e, il suono di ow italiano: bow, inchino, bower, pergola; queste diversità si trovano sempre segnate in quest'opera. — Wh, non seguita da un o, suona come se l'h fosse collocata innanzi alla w; which, quale; wheel, ruota. — Seguita da un r, questa lettera è muta: wrath, ira; write, scrivere; wring, torcere ec. Wab'ble, [onobl'] v. a. ondeggiare, dondolarsi; zoppicare, barcollare. Wad, [onöd] s. fascio (di paglia ecc.); stoppaccio, m. Wad, [onöd] v. a. mettere lo stoppaccio. Wad'ded, [onödëd] adj. imbotito. Wad'ding, [onöd'ing] s. bambagia, borra (di lana ecc.), f. Wad'dle, [onöd'l] v. a. zoppicare, barcollare. Wade, [onödë] v. a. guadare, passare con difficoltà; to -
